Youth Held Up and Robbed.

Footpads held a pistol against his head last night and robbed Thomas Blake, eighteen years old, 915 Twentieth street northwest, of $16 and two keys. He was at Seventeenth street and Virginia avenue northwest on his way home when two white men stepped from a doorway and commanded him to halt. While one of the bandits held the pistol, the other searched Blake's pockets.

THE MINISTER OF SWEDEN and Mme. Wallenberg will arrive in this country about October 15 and will come to Washington a few days later. The members of the legation staff, who have been at Bar Harbor all summer, are expected here on October 9. The second secretary, Leo Sager, will, however, precede his colleagues, returning to Washington in a few days.

Dr. J. B. Hubrecht, chargé d'affaires of the Netherlands, entertained at luncheon yesterday at the Shoreham in compliment to Dr. D. H. Andreas, commercial attaché of the legation, who will go soon to New York to become Dutch consul general. Richard H. Waldo, publisher of Hearst's International, was among the guests.

J. Mayhew Wainwright, Assistant Secretary of War, and Maj. C. E. S. Bridge, assistant military attaché of the British embassy, are among the notables from Washington who are attending the convention of the Military Order of the World War in Atlantic City. They are both staying at the Ambassador Hotel.

Mrs. H. H. Votaw, of Washington, sister of President Harding, was the maid of honor at the wedding of Miss Margaret Agnes Tulding of Miss Margaret Agnes Tul-lidge, of Philadelphia, and Dr. Robert Porch Sturr, of Haddon Heights, N. J., which took place last night in St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Overbrook, Pa.

Miss Abigail Victoria Harding, another sister of the President, was to have acted as maid of honor, but she was suddenly taken ill in Washington on her way to Philadelphia from Marion, Ohio, and an eleventh-hour change was necessary. Mrs. Votaw wore the gown her sister had intended wearing. James N. Butler, Atlantic City, was Dr. Sturr's best man.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George Bowler Tullidge, of Overbrook.

Mrs. Medill McCormick, who is spending a few days in New York, entertained at dinner at the Plaza last night.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Glover, Jr., returned yesterday to Orchard Hill, their suburban home. Mrs. Glover arrived in New York on Tuesday on the Olympic, having spent the summer in England, and Mr. Glover went to New York to meet her. He went abroad with Mrs. Glover in the early summer, but returned to this country several weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Gifford Pinchot are in New York, where they went to meet Lady Alan Johnstone on her arrival from England.

Major George Oakley Totten, Jr., has returned to Washington after having represented the United States at the tenth international congress of architects in Brussels. He was awarded the gold medal of the Société Centrale d'Architecture de Belgique.

Miss Koonen Weds
In Father's Home.
A marriage of international interest took place at noon today when Miss Elizabeth Koonen, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles K. Koonen, became the bride of Erik Schou Henius, of Copenhagen, Denmark. The ceremony at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Koonen was performed by the Rev. Father Riordan and was followed by a breakfast, for which a small company of relatives and close friends assembled.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Miss Mary Hill was her maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Daviette Ficklen, Miss Suzanne Wright, and Miss Virginia Puller. The wedding party also included the bride's brother, Charles Carr Koonen, who served as usher, and Edward K. Knudsen, of New York, was best man for Mr. Henius.

Autumn flowers in shades of gold and orange were used as decorations except in the drawing room, where the ceremony took place. There green and white were the prevailing tones. Easter lilies and white gladioli being used with palms and Australian ferns as a background.

The bride's gown was of soft, ivory satin, made on long, straight lines, with petal-shaped panels on the sides hanging well below the medium hem line. The low waist line was outlined with a band of pearl embroidery, which was continued to form a V-shaped panel on the front of the skirt. The gown was sleeveless, and small clusters of orange blossoms formed the only garniture beside the pearl embroidery.

The bride wore a beautiful rose point lace veil, mounted on tulle and over this a full veil which was arranged in a flat close-fitting cap held in place by clusters of orange blossoms. The gown cleared the floor all around, the veil forming the train. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses, white orchids and lilies of the valley. The attendants were dressed in picturesque frocks of changeable taffeta fashioned alike with pointed basques and long full scalloped skirts, built over hoops. Two were of pale yellow shot with pinkish lights and the other two of gold shading to flame. Black satin slippers, with gold, hooley, and black lace mitts completed quaint and charming costumes and the old-fashioned note was carried out in the colonial bouquets which the bridesmaids carried and in the clusters of old-fashioned flowers in their hair.

Mrs. Koonen, mother of the bride, had on a costume of black satin with an overdress of black chiffon embroidered in crystal beads. She wore a corsage bouquet of orchids.

Among the guests from other cities here for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. George Washington Young and Miss Joan Young, of Milwaukee; Mrs. William Hawley, of Leesburg.

GRANDMA NEVER LET HER HAIR GET GRAY

She Kept Her Locks Dark and Glossy With Sage Tea and Sulphur.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. At little cost, you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant. Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and, as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, and look years younger.
